

N U A T K A T N D E Y
 A W A L L C S D R N P
 W O V G S A W I A N K
 M L L Z V S O S W I V
 K O S S B T O A B S K
 X K P E Q L Q T R K N
 R O X I I E A T I I I
 P D S G X L W A D L G
 F T A E P X E C G L H
 E A I E Z I H K E E T
 W I R H W D E F E N D

Quiz Time! Answers: pigs, true, murder holes, seige tower

WALL * CASTLE * KNIGHT * MOAT
 DRAWBRIDGE * ATTACK * DEFEND
 SEIGE * ENNISKILLEN

CASTLE
 UNDER ATTACK!

The Community Engagement Initiative is a partnership between the Northern Ireland Museums Council and National Museums Northern Ireland, funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund

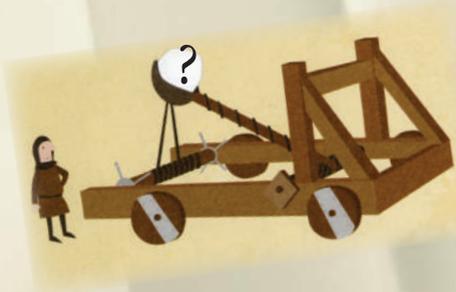

Design: Louise Rice
 Fermanagh County Museum,
 Enniskillen Castle Museums,
 +44 (028)66325000

Quiz Time

What was hurled over castle walls to spread disease?

- a) frying pans
- b) mushy peas
- c) pigs

TRUE or FALSE? Children were used to help operate siege machines. _____

Openings in castle walls used to attack the enemy were called...

- a) letter boxes
- b) murder holes
- c) drain pipes

Draw more soldiers inside!

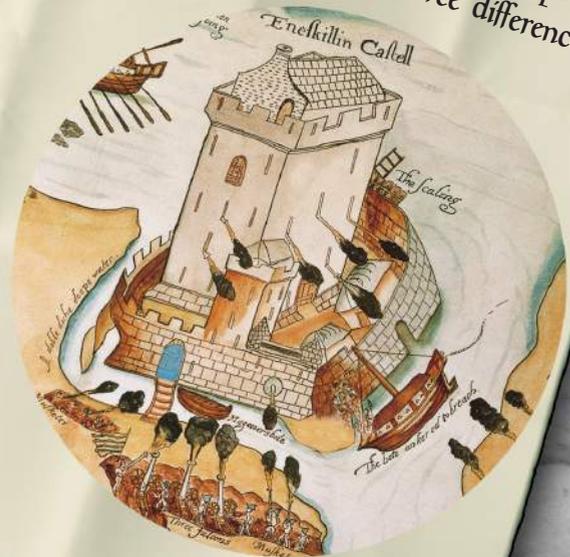

Unscramble these letters to identify this siege machine...

seegi terow

WHEN A KNIGHT IN ARMOUR IS BURIED, WHAT'S WRITTEN ON HIS GRAVE?
RUST IN PEACE

Can you spot the three differences?

WHAT'S ANOTHER NAME FOR MIDDLE AGES?
KNIGHT TIME!